

Praetorian MMA - Anti-Bullying Policy

This policy outlines Praetorian MMA's commitment to preventing and responding to bullying across all areas of club activity, including training sessions, competitions, social events, and online platforms.

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure all members, especially children, young people, and vulnerable adults, feel safe, respected, and supported. Bullying in any form will not be tolerated within Praetorian MMA.

2. Definition of Bullying

- Physical: Pushing, hitting, kicking, or other use of force.
- Verbal: Name-calling, threats, insults, or discriminatory remarks.
- Emotional: Excluding, spreading rumours, or isolating individuals.
- Cyberbullying: Misuse of digital platforms, such as sending hurtful messages or sharing inappropriate content.

- All members, staff, volunteers, and parents will be made aware that bullying is unacceptable and will be dealt with promptly and seriously.
- The club will foster a culture of inclusion, respect, and kindness.
- Coaches and staff will model respectful behaviour and intervene appropriately when bullying is witnessed or reported.

- Open communication will be encouraged through trusted adults and safeguarding leads.

5. Reporting Bullying

- Anyone can report concerns about bullying — this includes members, parents, coaches, or bystanders.
- Reports can be made verbally or in writing to the Club Welfare Officer or Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL).
- All reports will be treated seriously, confidentially, and with a commitment to investigate promptly and fairly.

6. Responding to Bullying

- All incidents will be documented using the club's incident report process.
- Where appropriate, mediation will be offered to resolve minor disagreements.
